Benjamin Franklin.

By J. A. EDGERTON.

He went without lunches to have more time to read.

TO improve his style as a writer Benjamin Franklin as a boy read passages from Addison's Spectator, then two or three days later tried to reproduce them. He was careful not to memorize the language, but only fixed the thought in his mind, then by comparing his own language with the original was enabled to discover the defects in his style.

To improve his conduct Franklin made out a list of the cardinal virtues, then marked down any infraction of them during each day. He also adopted early in life a set of simple rules for his guidance.

In youth Franklin happened to read Xenophon's description of the Socratic method, and it made a lasting impression on his mind. He decided to drop the dogmatic way of making statements and to follow the plan of the wise old Athenian. To this habit of asking questions and making suggestive and tentative statements rather than being self assertive and positive Franklin ascribed much of his later success as a writer and diplomat.

He ran away from Boston while a mere stripling, yet before he left he had read every book on which he could lay his hands. He even went without his lunches with the twofold object of having more time in which to read and of having more money to spend for books.

Franklin's first notable success was with "Poor Richard's Almanac," the quaint and wise sayings in which attained immediate and worldwide popularity and were translated into almost every known tongue.

In Franklin's electrical experiments, especially the famous one with the kite, he endangered his life, yet so intent was he on discovering the truth that he seemed utterly indifferent to personal peril.

Franklin's moral courage was shown nowhere more than in his treatment of his illegitimate son, William. He took the boy to live in his own home and introduced him everywhere as his son, both in America and Europe.

"Pneumonia's Deadly Work

had so seriously affected my right lung," writes Mrs. Fannie Connor, of Rural Route 1, Georgetown, Tenn., "that I coughed continuously night and day and the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only real cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs." When all other remedies utterly fail, you may still win in the battle against lung and throat troubles with New Discovery, the real cure. Guaranteed by Fort Pierce Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Friends Now.

Tom—Have you had any spats with your girl lately? Dick—No. We're great friends now. Tom—How's that? Dick—We've broken off our engagement.—Philadelphia Press.

It is less to suffer punishment than to deserve it.—Ovid.

Herbine.

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints.

It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

R. N. Andrews, Editor and Manager, Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla. writes: I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit." Sold by the Trowell Drug Co.

The Alternative.

Muggins—I hear you are having your daughter's voice cultivated. Buggins—Yes; I'm afraid it can't be cured, so I am doing the next best thing.—Philadelphia Record.

Doing Business Again.

"When my friends thought I was about to take leave of this world, on account of indigestion, nervousness and general debility," writes A. A. Chis-holm, Treadwell, N. Y., "and when it looked as if there was no hope left, I was persuaded to try Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that they are curing me I am now doing business again as of old, and am still gaining daily." Best tonic medicine on earth. Guaranteed by the Fort Pierce Drug Co. 50c.
